Dear Gabby,

I have a problem. My grandmother gave me a sweater for my birthday. She bought it at May's Department Store. It was really expensive. But, Gabby, it's the ugliest sweater in the world. I don't know what to do. I love my grandmother. I don't want to hurt her feelings, but I don't want to wear that sweater, either. What should I do? Mark

Dear Mark,

You're right. You shouldn't hurt your grandmother's feelings. I have some suggestions for you. Maybe you can return it. If you can't return it, why don't you wear the sweater the next time you visit her? It will make her happy. You can take off the sweater later. Or be honest and tell your grandmother how you feel.

Hi, Annie!

The cruise ship is really cool! It's as big as a town! There are 2,000 passengers. There are shops, restaurants, movie theaters, a fitness center, a library, and even a computer room. There are five pools on the ship, and there are different activities every day. Yesterday, I got a sunburn! Today, I sat in the shade on the deck and looked through my binoculars. I think I saw a shark!

We're going to stop in the Bahamas the day after tomorrow. Dad and I want to go snorkeling. I can't wait. My grandparents and my mom are going to stay on the ship and play bingo.

I hope you're having fun in Sunnyville. I'll be home next Friday. See you then!

SUNNYVILLEWeekly STATE FAIR

he competition was fierce at the state fair in Sunnyville this year. There were more than 20 different contests. Mike Harvey, of Loveville, won the horseback-riding contest. George and Garth Gurden, of Mossfield, won the three-legged race. Joe Smith, of Sunnyville, won the pie-baking and pieeating contests. Sunnyville Weekly talked to Mr. Smith after the awards ceremony.

Sunnyville Weekly: Mr. Smith, how do you feel?

Joe Smith: Great!

True

SW: Tell us about your pie. What kind of pie did you make?

JS: It's a peach-and-pineapple pie. I invented the recipe. Try some!

SW: Delicious! Are you going to enter the pie-baking contest at the next fair?

JS: Yes, and I'm going to invent a new recipe. Something with bananas, brown sugar, oranges... oops! It's a secret.

SW: Tell us about the pie-eating contest. What kind of pie did you have to eat?

JS: Blueberry, I'm surprised I won. I usually hate blueberry pie, but these pies were great!

  B.

  $\mathhb{G}$_{36}^{\text{CD1}}$ Listen and repeat.
- $\bigcirc$  Listen and read.

What makes you scared? An angry dog?
A thunderstorm? When we're scared, we breathe quickly and our hearts beat fast. The body's reaction is called 'fight or flight'. It protects us. Imagine you are living 100,000 years ago and you meet a tiger. You can fight or run away (flight). The body helps. The heart beats faster so more blood goes to the muscles and the brain and so you can move and think more quickly. You breathe faster so your body has more oxygen and you can fight or run longer and faster.

D. Is it true? Write ✓ or X.

We don't need to fight tigers anymore, but fear can help us stay safe. For example, if we are too close to a fire, we move away quickly and don't get burned. Or if someone is hurt, we run and get help. So fear can be good!

A. Have you ever been in an earthquake? B. 🚳 📅 Listen and repeat.

 $\bigcirc$  Signal Listen and read.

The Earth is made up of big, flat rocks. They are called tectonic plates. They move very slowly. When they move, it can sometimes make the ground move. This is an earthquake.

There are millions of earthquakes every year.
Scientists measure the size of earthquakes with a seismograph. This also shows the epicenter of an earthquake – the place where the earthquake is the strongest. Scientists use the Richter scale to compare the size of earthquakes. We don't feel earthquakes that are less than 3 on the Richter scale. An earthquake that is more than 5 can damage buildings. An earthquake that is more than 7 is very dangerous.

After a large earthquake, there are often lots of smaller earthquakes. These are called aftershocks. An earthquake can also cause tsunamis, landslides, fires, and floods. So it's important for scientists to learn a lot about earthquakes.

July 5

Dear Max.

I'm at the Moon Lake Dude Ranch. It's located near Moon Lake. Mr. West is the owner. He's a cowboy. He's as old as the hills. Now, I'm going to take a nap. It was a long bus trip to the ranch, and I'm tired. I'm going to take an airplane the next time. Your friend,

Digger

July 6

Dear Max,

It was windy on the range today. I think the wind speed was 30 miles per hour! That's fast. There was a lot of flying debris. I cleaned the stable after lunch. Then Mr. West said to me, "You fed the horses, didn't you?" I was embarrassed because I forgot to feed the horses. Your friend,

Digger

July 7

Dear Max.

Have you ever seen a tornado? Well, now I've seen one! We went to the basement. I didn't get hurt. The cattle are fine. But it was scary! The yard was a mess, but there wasn't any damage. After we cleaned up, I was as hungry as a bear. I made biscuits for the cowboys. My biscuits were better than Mr. West's biscuits! Your friend,

Digger

July 8

Dear Max.

Today we went to the state fair. I saw a lot of animals. I entered a pie-eating contest. The competition was fierce. I didn't win, but I had a lot of fun. Then there was a thunderstorm. It was loud and exciting. In the evening, Mr. West built a fire. We ate dinner by the fire. Your friend,

Digger

Flood Closes Sunnyville Mall

Yesterday's thunderstorm and heavy rains caused a flood in the Sunnyville Mall. Four feet of water filled the lower level. The flood didn't hurt any shoppers, but the stores had to close early.

Ken Green's store, T-shirt Planet, was full of water.

begin → begun

"I was talking on the phone when water started to pour in. It was scary, so I ran," said Mr. Green. "I haven't seen all the damage yet."

Mr. Green's insurance will pay for new T-shirts.

The most extensive damage was in the food court. "I lost 250 pounds of ice cream," said Rita Smith of Rita's Delicious Ice Cream.

Luckily, shoppers haven't been discouraged by the flood. Repairs have already begun at Lacy's Department Store. The food court will reopen next week.

Dear Diary,

I'm having a great time at summer camp!

I have swimming every morning in the lake or the pool.

After swimming, there are lots of activities. We can choose a different activity every day. I really like mountain climbing, hiking, and crafts. Canoeing is fun, but exhausting, too. Yesterday, we only tipped over once! It was great! My least favorite activity is bird-watching. It's so boring.

The food is really good. Sometimes we have barbecues at night. We always tell ghost stories around the campfire.

Tomorrow is the last day. I don't want to leave. I made a lot of new friends. I'll miss them! I'll miss the counselors, too. They're really nice.

This has been the best two weeks of the summer! But I can't wait to see my rabbit, Digger.

Did you know that more people speak Mandarin Chinese than any other language? 15% of the world's population speaks Mandarin, but English is the world's international language. Maybe that's because people speak English as their native language on many different continents.

People speak English differently in different parts of the world. The words aren't always the same. For example, if you ask for a biscuit in cookie. People in America and Canada say they live in apartments but people in England call them flats. In England, 'color' is spelled 'colour' and 'favorite' is spelled 'favourite'.

The pronunciation of words and the grammar are also sometimes different. It's important to listen to the accents of native speakers from around the world so you can understand all of them.

"It took two weeks and it was a difficult trip. The ship was dirty and many people got sick. There wasn't much food. When we arrived, we went to Ellis Island in New York Harbor." "We were asked: Do you have any money? Where are you going to live? And then the doctor checked us," said Antonio. "After a few hours, we entered the United States! It was exciting but scary because we couldn't speak English!"
