Working around the clock

Jayden Smith, a businessman, lives with his wife Katy in Texas, USA. He tells us about their typical day.

From Monday to Friday, I get up at six. I have a big cup of coffee and check my emails and messages. I don't have breakfast, but I make breakfast for Katy – usually toast and eggs. I leave home at 7.30 and go to work. I work in a big office in the city centre. At one, I have lunch. I usually have a sandwich at my desk and go on social media or listen to a podcast. I finish work at five and go home. I have dinner with Katy – often pasta or rice. In the evening, I watch TV or read a book. I go to bed at 10.30 or 11.

Katy's day is very different. She's a taxi driver and usually works at night. She starts work at 7 p.m. and finishes at 4 or 5 a.m. She gets home at six and has breakfast, then she goes to bed. She gets up at three and goes to the gym. Then she goes home and makes dinner. We have dinner together before she leaves for work. She works on Saturdays, but she never works on Sundays. On Sunday mornings we go for a walk, then make lunch together and watch a film.

My hero

Elena Larios | 12 October

My hero isn't a famous sports person or actor – it's my Nonna (grandmother). She's amazing! She's 95 years old, but she plays tennis, swims and dances! Nonna was born in Valparaiso in Chile. Her parents were from Italy, so Nonna speaks Italian and Spanish. She is from a very big family (eight children) and she was the only girl.

When Nonna was young, she was a dancer. She wasn't famous all around the world, but she was famous in Latin America – she says she was the best dancer in Chile! Sometimes she shows me old photos – she was beautiful in her dance clothes!

After she was a dancer, Nonna was a teacher at a big school in Valparaiso and the mother of six children – she was very busy but always happy! She's an amazing cook. When I was a child, my favourite place was Nonna's kitchen. Her pasta and ice cream were the best!

I visit Nonna every Saturday and we spend the afternoon together. We usually sit in the garden and talk – Nonna has lots of interesting stories. She's a very positive person, and she always listens to me and helps me with my problems. Sometimes we dance together – I love salsa, but I can't dance the tango!

What an amazing weekend!

Tell us about a great weekend and win a weekend break for two!

1 My weekends aren't usually interesting – I watch a series or play video games because I'm too tired to go out. But two weeks ago, I went glamping with friends! We stayed in a big tent next to a lake. On Saturday, we swam in the lake and relaxed. In the evening we had a barbecue and sat outside. We were tired and went to bed early. On Sunday, we went for a long walk in the mountains. It was beautiful and I took lots of photos with my camera. It was great to do something different, and I didn't use my phone all weekend!

Otto Weber

2 It was my 30th birthday last week. I had an amazing weekend! On Saturday my brother had a big party for me at his house. He didn't tell me about the party – he said it was a small family dinner with our parents, but when I arrived at his house, all my friends were there! My brother cooked my favourite food and we ate outside in the garden. After dinner, there was birthday cake, and everyone sang Happy Birthday to me. Then we played music and danced until midnight. On Sunday we all went to the beach, swam in the sea, and relaxed. It was perfect!

I love sport and I do lots of exercise, but I can't dance! On Monday, I went to a salsa class with my friend Sandra – she's a fantastic dancer! It was really good exercise, but it was difficult, and I wasn't very good. I'm happy that I tried the class, but I'm not a dancer!

- My daughter got a skateboard for her birthday and now she wants me to learn! I had a skateboard when I was young, but I can't remember how to use it. I loved it and I really want to go again next week!

- 2
- The third class I tried was origami – a traditional Japanese paper art. At school, I wasn't very good at art, but I'd like to learn origami – I think it's an amazing skill. But it was good to do something different and it made me feel happy.

- Presenter: Hello and welcome to the 'My home' podcast. Today's question is: What do you need in a city or town? Genevieve, let's start with you – what's important for you in the place that you live?
 Genevieve: Well, I live in a very small place. There isn't much there! I think good schools are important, but there aren't any in my town – my children's school is about twenty minutes away in a different town. Erm, I think shops are important, too. We don't have a shopping centre, but there's a small supermarket and a post office.
 Presenter: How about a sports centre? Is that important for you?
 Genevieve: Not really. We don't have a sports centre, but we have a swimming pool and there's a lovely park. The park is my favourite place in town. I often walk or run there.
 Presenter: Great, thanks. What about your town, Tomas? Is it big or small?
 Tomas: Well, I'm also from a small town, but there is a lot there. For example, we have a school and a shopping centre.
 Presenter: And what's important for you in the place that you live?
 Tomas: Well, sport is very important for me, so I'm happy there's a big sports centre and a swimming pool near my house. I think restaurants are important, too. There's a cheap Italian restaurant and an expensive Thai restaurant in my town.
 Presenter: Mmm, I love Thai food! And what about libraries or museums? Are they important for you?
 Tomas: Yeah, I guess they're important, too. We have a library, but we don't have a museum.
 Presenter: OK, thanks. And Liane? What about your town?
 Liane: I don't live in a town, I live in a big city.
 Presenter: And what's important for you where you live?
 Liane: Everything! I love my city because there are lots of places to go – shops, parks, supermarkets, hotels, restaurants ... There are also some libraries, museums, two sports centres and a hospital. My favourite place is the Turkish restaurant near my apartment. Oh, and for travel, there are two train stations and a bus station, but there isn't an airport.
 Presenter: Great! Thanks, everyone.

 Lily: Yes, of course! The film starts in 15 minutes.
 Jago: Oh, OK. How far is the cinema from the train station?
 Lily: About 10 minutes by bus. Take the number 41 or 42. There's a bus stop opposite the train station entrance.
 Jago: On North Street?
 Lily: Yes, it's next to the post office.
 Jago: OK ... bus number 41 or 42. And where's the cinema?
 Lily: It's in the shopping centre, on the 2nd floor, next to the pizza restaurant.

Jago: 2nd floor, pizza restaurant – got it!
 Lily: I'm near the information desk opposite the lift. I have our tickets.
 Jago: OK, great! See you soon!

 Interviewer: What do you paint?
 Zorah: I usually paint pictures of people, but sometimes I paint the flowers in my garden.
 Interviewer: What do you do at the weekends?

 Anders: Really?!
 Sally: Yeah. It was Luisa's 40th birthday last week, and it is my 40th birthday soon, so we wanted a weekend break to do something special.
 Anders: Nice!
 Sally: We travelled there by train – it was really fast! The train was at 5 p.m. on Friday and we arrived in Paris at 7. We stayed in a hotel in the centre of Paris next to the River Seine.
 Anders: Was it expensive?
 Sally: Well, we booked a different hotel online, but when we arrived it was full, so we didn't stay there.
 Anders: Oh no!
 Sally: It was OK. They moved us to another hotel – a very expensive one! It was beautiful ... look!
 Anders: Oh, it's lovely!
 Sally: It was great... very clean, and our room was big! And the people in the hotel were really friendly ... we were very happy there!
 Anders: How was the food?
 Sally: We loved it! The hotel restaurant was great. We tried lots of typical French food. It wasn't cheap, but it was delicious!
 Anders: Mmm! Was the weather good?
 Sally: Yes. On Saturday we walked around the city streets – the buildings in Paris are beautiful. We visited a food market and tried some cheese. In the afternoon we walked along the Champs-Élysées. It's a famous street with lots of expensive shops, but we didn't buy anything! On Sunday we visited the Louvre Museum and looked at the famous paintings there.
 Anders: It sounds like a great weekend!
 Sally: Yeah, it was perfect!
