One day, Anne Sullivan is using her finger to write water on Helen's hand. She puts Helen's other hand in a bowl of water. Suddenly Helen understands. On that day she learns 30 words.

2nd June 1922

Dear Elsa,

Thank you for your letter. You asked what I did on my holiday last week. Well, we went to Brighton beach. The (1) steam train was comfortable but very noisy. It is better than travelling by horse though. There were so many people at the beach – it was very (2) _____. I was upset because I bought new (3) _____ but I couldn't wear them! It was delicious.

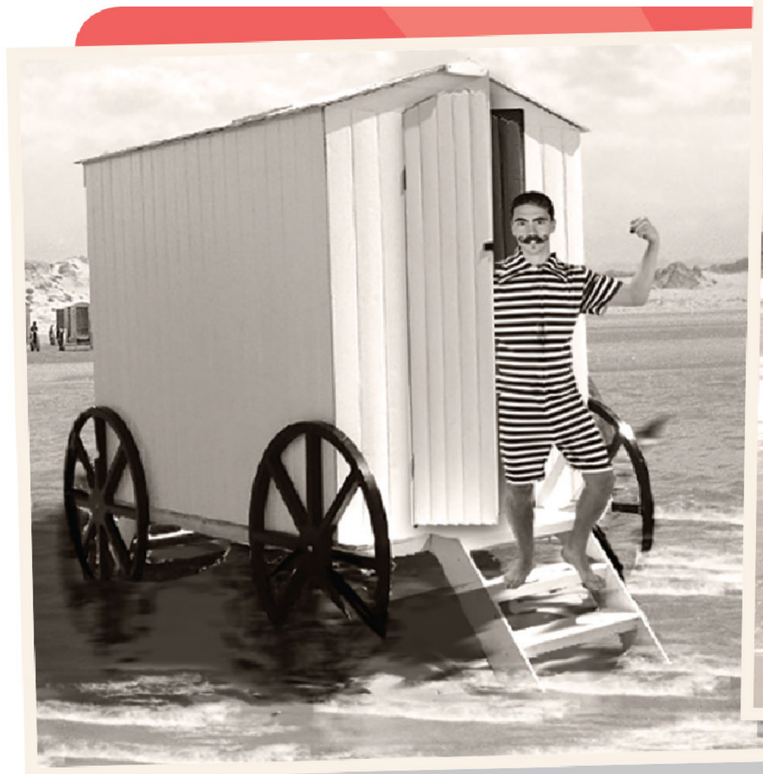
In the afternoon we saw a (6) _____ with Punch and Judy and I liked it. I didn't go on the (7) _____ because I'm afraid of them.

We are going to take the train to Manchester to see Aunt Emma next week. Are you going to be there?

Yours truly,

Sandra

3 Look and read. Underline the things that are the same today.



People started going on holidays after the 1850s. This is because the steam train made it easier to travel. The most popular place to go was the seaside. There were donkey rides and puppet shows but there were also theatre shows, music halls and even zoos.

Children made sandcastles on the beach and played different games. People sat on the beach and had picnics, too. They walked along the beach but people didn't wear shorts and T-shirts. The beaches were very crowded.

People wore bathing suits that covered most of their bodies. Before going into the sea, they got into a bathing carriage and changed from their ordinary clothes to their bathing suits. A horse pulled the carriage into the sea and then the swimmers dived into the water. Men and women didn't swim together.

4 Imagine you are on holiday in the past. Write three things about it.

- Where were you?
- How did you travel there?
- What did you do there?

- [ ] B: Walking up and down all the time? No, thanks.
